GUEST PRESENTATION	None
PUBLIC COMMENT	None
MAYOR'S REPORT	Dennis Peto passed away and will be sorely missed in this community. Thoughts and prayers go out to his family. Congratulations to my parents on celebrating their 50 th wedding anniversary. Hope everyone enjoyed all the Fourth of July activities. One of the new additions for Fourth of July activities was the Ohio Flags of Honor. This is a traveling memorial to honor 301 Ohioans who sacrificed their lives to the global war on terror since 9/11. The planning happened over a 5-week period and he is very grateful for all the community who helped plan and donated their time. During the opening ceremony almost all of the flags were posted except for a couple that were asked to be posted during the opening ceremony. Sergeant Jeremy D. Barnett and Lance Corporal Michael J. Smith Jr are the two Ohioans flags that were posted by the Mayor. Submitted names of 301 Ohioans from Flags of Honor for correspondence.

BUSINESS FROM THE FLOOR

Mrs. Sarty – Thanked the committee and Mayor Snider for bringing the Ohio Flags of Honor to our community. Attended the Opening Ceremony for the National Rifle Matches and it was a great ceremony. This was the last national match at Camp Perry.

Mr. Freedman – Stated the Ohio Flags of Honor was amazing. Thanked all the city workers who kept the city nice and clean over this past weekend. Was nice to see the city beach packed.

Mrs. Hickman – Thanked Mayor Snider and the committee for the hard work on all the Fourth of July activities. The photo taken in front of the Fisherman’s Wharf made National Geographic. Thanked everyone who came out for the Squirt Gun run to support local women in our community going to school. It was very nice to see people utilizing our city beach this past weekend.

Ms. Phillips – Agreed with everything that has been stated so far. Attended the open house for Ottawa County Family Advocacy on South McKinley. It is amazing how many organizations are operating out of building. The Emergency Services committee meeting scheduled for next week is rescheduled to August 20th, 2019.

Mrs. Gillman – Agreed with everything everyone has stated so far. Additional thank you to Larry Holman and Jerry Tarolli along with all the city workers that helped with all the flooding within the community.

Mr. Hild – Nothing to present

Mr. Below – Nothing to present

With no further business to discuss Ms. Phillips moved to adjourn; seconded by Mrs. Sarty. With all those in favor, the meeting was adjourned at 7:54 p.m.
